IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

Frank Liu  Plaintiff,  vs.  The Nielsen Company (US) LLC  and TNC US HOLDINGS  Defendants.	Case #1:22-cv-09084-JHR-OTW  Plaintiff's Motion for an Extension of Time to File a Proposed Case Management Plan and Agenda
-----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------	----------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------

Motion for an Extension of Time to File a Proposed Case Management Plan & Agenda

Due to a recent development (pro bono attorney reaching out to represent Plaintiff), Plaintiff is moving the Court to extend the deadline for the filing of the proposed case management plan and agenda to be due by May 13 (or perhaps a little longer than that), and perhaps a continuance of the status conference to a later date that works for the Court because Plaintiff believes he should confer with the attorney(s) that will represent Plaintiff, and the attorney(s) would likely take over the task in question because they are experienced professionals.

A pro bono attorney reached out to Plaintiff on May 6, 2025 via email, and Plaintiff is scheduled to speak to attorneys at the law firm on May 8th. Since the Court ordered a joint or separately filed proposed agendas to be due by May 7, 2025, Plaintiff (who may still be considered pro se for now) believes the best way to satisfy the Court order and the recent development, is to file a placeholder proposed agenda on his own until he is officially represented by attorney(s) and they have filed an appearance in this lawsuit. This way, Plaintiff believes he would be in compliance of the Court order in ECF 146, and also be able to speak to the pro bono attorney(s) about the matter on May 8.

Note About Plaintiff's Proposed Case Management Plan and Agenda

On Tuesday, May 6, 2025, an associate attorney at a law firm reached out to me via email informing me that she was appointed by the Court to represent me pro bono and requested to speak to me this Thursday or Friday. I replied back to her, and I am scheduled to speak to attorneys from the law firm on Thursday, May 8, 2025.

Because the associate attorney and I are scheduled to speak on May 8, and given that ECF 146 directed the parties to either file a joint or separately filed proposed agendas by May 7, Liu submits his proposed agenda in good faith in order to comply with the Court Order. However, Plaintiff does believe the proposed case management plan and agenda might need to be amended or changed after council have filed an appearance.

For the purposes of this proposed case management plan and agenda, Plaintiff is submitting it as if he will continue to be pro se because he doesn't believe he should count his chickens before they hatch (so to speak).

Plaintiff had previously speculated that no pro bono attorneys would reach out to Plaintiff to represent him, so was surprised at the good news. Prior to receiving the email on May 6 from the pro bono attorney, Plaintiff believed he would need to litigate the lawsuit pro se. Moreover, prior to May 6, Plaintiff did take good faith steps to try to confer with Nielsen Defendants regarding filing a joint proposed agenda, however Defendants have refused to confer with Plaintiff. Emails between Liu and Defendants' attorneys are attached under Exhibit 1 to show the Court that Liu made several attempts to confer with Nielsen Defendants prior to a pro bono attorney reaching out to represent Plaintiff. Even though Defendants were refusing to confer with Plaintiff about the proposed joint agenda, on May 7, Plaintiff informed Nielsen Defendants that there was a recent development and requested to confer.

Mr. Hu,

I think you left out the part regarding: "Plaintiff is still waiting for Nielsen to fully comply with Court Order ECF 106. (Eg. Nielsen continues to refuse to provide Plaintiff the Sedgwick NJ workers' compensation claim notes, which are notes that Sedgwick employee(s) made in Liu's workers compensation case in their system, which can be exported to PDF format and emailed to Plaintiff.)"

I hope you and Ms. Spangler can agree that I have tried several times to set up a day and time to confer. Moreover, I would like to confer with either you or Ms. Spangler regarding a recent development. Can I please confer with one of you today, if that is OK?

Please let me know as soon as possible today when either you or Ms. Spangler can confer with me. Thank you.

And in another email, Plaintiff did inform Mr. Hu that Liu was going to speak to attorneys tomorrow.

Mr. Hu,

Back on April 25, I reached out to Ms. Spangler requesting to confer about the joint proposed agenda. You were included in the email.

Ms. Spangler,

What is a good day and time for you to confer with me regarding the joint proposed agenda that is due by May 7?

Please let me know. Thank you.

Despite my numerous attempts to confer, no confer has taken place. It just seems like Defendants intentionally ran out the clock for me. I guess I might request the Court to see if they will grant me an extension to file a separate proposed agenda.

The recent development is that I'm going to speak to attorneys tomorrow. This case is important to me and has been for a long time. I would have appreciated conferring with one of you, instead of all this pushback.

Thank you.

Had Defendants granted Plaintiff the opportunity to confer with one of them, Liu would have revealed more details to Defendants' attorney and perhaps asked Nielsen's attorney if they would support the idea of asking the Court for an extension.

Plaintiff is attaching emails under Exhibit 1, so the Court can see that Plaintiff tried several times to set up a confer call with Defendants regarding a proposed joint agenda.

Plaintiff apologizes that his separately filed proposed agenda is longer than 1 page. For the proposed agenda, he is using the template for Pro Se cases, which is available at https://www.nysd.uscourts.gov/sites/default/files/practice\_documents/otwProposedCaseManagementPlanForProSeCases.pdf And due to Defendants' refusal to confer with Plaintiff, Plaintiff feels he needs to inform the Court about the matter.

In conclusion, Liu files his proposed agenda in order to comply with ECF 146. However, Liu believes the discovery portion within Plaintiff's Proposed Case Management Plan and Agenda may need to be amended or altered once he is officially represented by counsel because attorney(s) would have a better idea about the matter.

Plaintiff's Proposed Agenda should be seen a temporary placeholder only until he is officially represented by attorney(s). If Plaintiff does not submit a proposed agenda by the due date, he fears Defendants may somehow hold it against him in some way later on, so feels like the best course of action is to submit a proposed temporary agenda before the deadline elapses.

Lastly, Plaintiff believes the Court might be looking for a proposed agenda with specific dates for discovery deadlines, etc. Plaintiff is unsure if what Defendants filed in ECF 148 was what the Court was specifically looking for. Had Defendants conferred with Plaintiff, he likely would have brought the issue up to them.

Dated 5/7/2025

Respectfully submitted,

Frank Liu
